Thou wast born of dream, Mary Baldwin, Mary Baldwin

Woman's dreams of love and true desire;

Conqueror's dreams with passion's ardor glowing,

Caught from Truth's undying pure white fire

Born to live, to perish never

To inspire to high endeavor,

To uphold that light forever,

Mary Baldwin

Thou wast built of dream, Mary Baldwin, Mary Baldwin

Dreams of faith, the dreams of early dawn

Thou shalt live beyond time's farthest limit;

Dreams shall last when walls of stone are gone.

Born to live, to perish never

To inspire to high endeavor,

To uphold that light forever,

Mary Baldwin

WINTER WONDERLAND

it's snowing, finally!

This year's first snowfall came late, at the end of January. When the snow finally did hit, it was not what the community expected. Everyone expected a big snow storm to snow everyone inside. It was cold, slippery, and wet, but classes went on as usual. The ice did cause a few unexpected ice skating events around campus, but the grounds keepers did an excellent job putting salt down and clearing the walks for the students making the campus safe for everyone. I hope everyone enjoyed the snow.

Believing in the principles of student government, I pledge myself to uphold the ideals and regulations of the Mary Baldwin community. I recognize the principles of honor and cooperation as the basis of our life together and shall endeavor faithfully to order my life accordingly and to encourage others to fulfill the ideals of the honor system.

CHARTER DAY
honorable mention

August 1994, the Mary Baldwin Community took part in the traditional ceremony of signing of the Honor Pledge. Freshmen and transfer students signed the pledge to become full members of the Student Government Association. The returning students re-pledged themselves to uphold the Honor Code. The ceremony was watched over by the Judicial Council, and Dr. Ron Lovelace made the speech for the ceremony.

Weekends
...how do you spend yours?

Spent on or off campus, weekends have always brought back many stories to gossip about. "You won't believe what happened to me this weekend!" "Scott is the biggest sweetheart!" "I had the best time!" "I met blah-blah at UVA this weekend!" Some students stay on campus to attack the big paper due next week or to dance the night away at a mixer. Others race home to get away from the work or to see a boyfriend. And you can't say you don't take advantage of our neighboring schools.

Suzannah Meyer's boyfriend goes to VA Tech, so many of her weekends are spent there as well as studying, seeing movies at the Dixie Theater, and going to W&L with friends. "My most exciting weekend...well, Signature Balls are always the best, but one weekend Lori B., Suzannah F., Suez Doran, some others, and I went skiing. It was HILARIOUS! Except for the car accident on the way up. But I'll never forget how 'Scaredy' wouldn't go down the slope."

"I usually try to catch up on work and see friends that I don't get to see during the week," says Beth Silverman. She also exclaims how wonderful Signature Ball weekends are. Other individuals claim "no comment" for reason of incriminating themselves. So this just goes to show that Mary Baldwin students have an adventurous or a memorable weekend at least once!

The Class of 1995 dedicates these pages to talented and generous-spirited woman, and we miss her.

Erica Bartsch

Common Sense

The echoes reverberate
Within my heart
Little differences between
The things I've actually heard
And what I wish they'd been.
Flavors savor on my tongue
Combine, confuse my tasting skills
Refine my ability
To separate the finer things
Though delicate at first.
A tender rose beneath my nostrils
Gentle reminder of Sweetness in a pungent world
The garden Earth
Filled with the blossoms of hope.
The world I see before me
Is not the same as yours
The place I see before my eyes
Deserves more credit
Than it knows.
Nerve endings in a frenzy
Racing signals to my spine
Acting upon my feelings
Instinct is not dead.
Just involuntary.

You who are on the road must have a code that you can live by. So become yourself because the past is just a good bye. Teach your childen well, their father's hell did slowly go by. Feed them on your dreams, the one they picked, the one you'll know by. Don't ever ask them why, if they told you you would cry, so just look at them and sigh. And know they love you. -Crosby, Stills, and Nash

After a while you learn the subtle difference between holding a hand and chaining a soul, and you learn that love doesn't mean leaning and company doesn't mean security, and you begin to learn that kisses aren't contracts and presents aren't promises, you you begin to accept your defeats with your head up and your eyes open, with the grace of a woman, not the grief of a child, and you learn to build all your roads on today because tomorrow's ground is too uncertain for plans. And futures have a way of falling down in mid-flight, after a while you learn that even sunshine burns if you get too much-so you plant your own garden and you decorate your own soul; instead of waiting for someone to bring you flowers. And you learn that you really can endure...that you really are strong. And you really do have worth. And you learn and learn...with every good bye you learn.

The Heart's Friend
- A Shoshone Love Song
Fair is the white star of twillight,
And the sky clearer
At the day's end;
But she is fairer, and she is dearer,
She, my heart's friend!

Take me take me for a ride
On the biggest largest vehicle you can Possibly imagine
Get the keys let's go
Drive

Gonna ride off in the surprise
Gotta win our Nobel Prize
Gee I wonder what we'll say
Do our homework on the way
Gonna meet the King of France
Tell him, "Je n'ai pas de pantelons"
Give his cigar a light
Then slip away unnoticed into the night

Picture a spinning toy laden with adventure
Coupled with the things I've told
And a dream can be as one
I have my moments now and again
I said I have my moments now and again.
-Blues Traveler, "I have my moments"

To a Friend

Grace Strickler Dawson

You entered my life in a casual way,
And saw at a glance what I needed;
There were others who passed me or met me each day,
But never a one of them heeded.
Perhaps you were thinking of other folks more,
Or chance simply seemed to decree it;
I know there were many such chances before,
But others -well, they didn't see it.

You said just the thing that I wished you would say,
And you made me believe that you meant it;
I held up my head in the old gallant way,
And resolved you should never repent it.
There are times when encouragement means such a lot,
And a word is enough to convey it;
There were others who could have, as easy as not -
But, just the same, they didn't say it.

There may have been someone who could have done more
To help me along though I doubt it;
What I needed was cheering, and always before
They had let me plod onward without it.
You helped to refashion the dream of my heart,
And made me turn eagerly to it;
There were others who might have (I question that part) -
But, after all, they didn't do it!
